[March 27, 2025] – RSG Advisory proudly announces the inclusion of its outstanding Advisory team in two esteemed rankings of top retirement plan advisors for 2025. This momentous recognition from both the NAPA Top DC Advisor Teams and the PLANADVISER Top Retirement Plan Advisers lists fills us with immense gratitude and pride, reflecting our unwavering commitment to excellence in the field of retirement planning.

The 2025 NAPA Top DC Advisor Teams list, released by the National Association of Plan Advisors (NAPA), features a record-breaking 431 teams nationwide guiding nearly $2 trillion in defined contribution plan assets belonging to almost 47,000 plans covering more than 21 million participants. Each team listed on this prestigious roster has assets under advisement (AUA) exceeding $100 million, exemplifying their profound impact on the nation's private retirement system. RSG Advisory currently manages over $1.88B in plan assets under advisement, serving 634 qualified plan clients, primarily serving small and medium sized businesses (the SMB market). This is RSG Advisory's eighth consecutive year making the list.

Meanwhile, the 2025 PLANADVISER Top Retirement Plan Advisers list, unveiled by PLANADVISER, showcases 245 top advisers in America recognized for their exceptional service across various types of retirement plans. These advisers meet stringent quantitative criteria, including a minimum requirement of 50 plan clients or retirement plan assets under advisement of $400 million or more. Additionally, special focus is acknowledged for advisers catering to specific plan types, such as 401(k), 403(b), 457, nonqualified, and others.

Among the distinguished professionals acknowledged in these rankings is Steve Scott from RSG Advisory. Steve's expertise and dedication has earned him this recognition on behalf of the entire team, who are committed to providing comprehensive retirement planning solutions.
